

HARLECH AND LEINSTER RE-ENACTMENT SOCIETIES

KEVIN O'TOOLE 1955 - 2009

KEVIN was a dedicated husband and father and a well respected friend of mine, we worked together for many ears bringing the history of Ireland and Wales together.

Kevin was paramount in the successful Cynan – Marshal Connection, with Cross border themes. He was instrumental in his home town of Athy at the birth of the yearly festival. Where members of Harlech Medieval Society were privileged to be involved in.

On many occasion Kevin brought a contingent into Wales to assist with Heritage events – over the last 4 years, he introduced us to Trim Castle where we all had great times. I hope that events will continue as a memorial to Kevin.

All that is left to say is 'we hope to see you in the Hall of Warriors' Wassail to Kevin O'Toole of the Clan O'Toole.

Roger
